

Friends

Friends are people you can talk to without being embarrassed;
People that you can enjoy spending time with;
People who you can ask if you have problems;
Without them you would be very lonely.

Friends are people you can trust;
People that don't stab you in the back;
They're people that like you for who you are,
not for what you are or how rich or poor you are;

They are people who care about how you feel
and what you are thinking about;
They like to spend time with you.

No matter how many friends you have you will never have too many friends.
You will never be lonely.

Honest reflections of someone who died too young.

Friends are the angels that lift us to our feet
when our wings have trouble remembering how to fly
